

MEDIA ADVISORY

EPIC v. FBI:

A Freedom of Information Act Lawsuit To Determine the FBI's Response to Russian Interference in the 2016 Presidential Election

WHAT: On January 18, 2017, the Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) lawsuit in federal district court in Washington, DC for records regarding the FBI's response to Russian Interference with the 2016 Presidential Election.

The President of EPIC and the EPIC Senior Counsel will discuss the reason for filing EPIC v. FBI, and the ongoing concern about the FBI's response to knowledge of Russian interference with the 2016 election.

WHO: Marc Rotenberg, EPIC President (@MarcRotenberg)
Alan Butler, EPIC Senior Counsel (@AlanInDC)

WHEN: Thursday, January 19, 2017
1:00 PM ET
(Registration: 12:45)

WHERE: Fund for Constitutional Government
(Across the street from the U.S. Supreme Court)
122 Maryland Avenue NE
Washington, DC 20002
Conference bridge: TEL: +1 646 558 8656 ID: 445 911 3768

LINKS: EPIC [www.epic.org]
EPIC v. FBI, No. 17-127 (D.D.C. filed Jan. 18, 2017)
[<https://epic.org/foia/fbi/russian-hacking/EPIC-FBI-Complaint-01182017.pdf>]

CONTACT: For interviews or additional information please contact Gerald Tan at admin@epic.org or 202.483.1140 x109

###